

THEOLOGY ON TAP

Tuesdays - St. Barbara Parish

2859 S. Throop St. - just south of Archer

6:00 p.m. – Parish Mass, 7:00 p.m.– Refreshments & Nosh

7:30 p.m.– PRESENTATION

JULY 13

Being Catholic Monday Through Friday

Ms. Liz Collier

Dr. Liz Collier has a doctorate in Christian Ethics and teaches courses on business ethics, Catholic social teaching and service learning at Loyola and DePaul. She is the former Director of the Crossroads Center for Faith and worked at Old St. Patrick's Church

JULY 20

After Sunday Comes Monday

Fr. Britto Berchmans

Fr. Britto Barchans is pastor of St. Paul of the Cross Parish in Park Ridge, IL. He received a Ph.D. in mass communication from the University of Illinois, and holds masters degrees in physics, journalism and theology. He speaks extensively to groups on relationships, spirituality, personal growth and marriage

JULY 27

Finding God's Grace in the Violent Streets of Chicago

Ms. Sandy Downes

Sandy Downes, SFO, is a Secular Franciscan. Through gang intervention, and involvement with soup kitchens, homeless shelters, and the creation of neighborhood watch groups, she has been able to assist those living in fear to experience peace, hope, and the Grace of God.

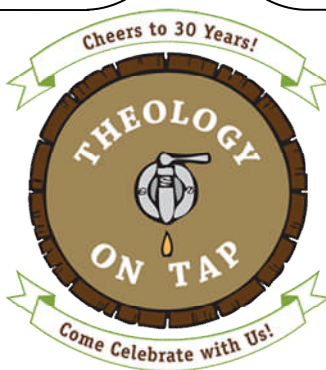

AUGUST 3

Journey to the Center for Your Authentic Self

Mr. Ed Duffy

Mr. Ed Duffy is an educational consultant, singer/songwriter, and retreat leader, pursuing a Masters of Divinity degree. Ed is the founder of iCompass, an Ignatian spiritual community, and the folk-rock band, the Blunt Instruments. He also leads retreats with homeless men.

For information contact 312-842-7979
stbarbara@stbarbarachicago.org

Theology On Tap
is for young adults ages 18-40!